Coming Soon SUSPECT

(by Edward Percy & Reginald Denham)

Set in the 1930's, this gripping mystery-melodrama takes place in a remote cliff-top house in Cornwall where the occupant "Mrs Smith" lives, along with her housekeeper. She is insanely jealous of her only Son, who is engaged to be married to the Doctor's Daughter.

Visiting guests soon begin to realize that the frequent Cornish mists conceal more than the view!

The 3-act play builds to a climax that is truly memorable, as director Colin Pollard well remembers from when he first encountered "Suspect" over 50 years ago!

The multi.talented Lizz Freeman is featured as Mrs Smith, along with an excellent cast featuring both new and well established Players.

The production runs from Friday November 21st until Tuesday 25th, nightly at 8pm, except Sunday which is 7pm.

"Did she – didn't she? Was she – is she?"
An evening not to be missed!!!!
