Director's Note

This is my first play for Salon and I would like to thank everyone for their warm welcome and help during this period. I have directed many plays prior to this but I can honestly say I have never worked with more professional people. Three members of the cast are also new to Salon. Mark Rose, an ex professional with more years in the Theatre than he would want me to divulge. Otilia Obreja, a young dancer in her first big role and Kathy Monahan, a young Drama Teacher who has been in numerous productions in her career. June Williamson, a regular at Salon is like all the cast, very talented. Neil Simon is a great writer and 'Red Hot Lovers' is full of wonderful one liners and insights to the human condition. I do hope you enjoy yourselves this evening. We will certainly be aiming to entertain you.

Coming Soon

THE FULL MONTY

March 20th - 29th 2009

The next production here at the Salon Varietes is the award winning musical The Full Monty, based on the successful British film. It tells the story of Jerry, John David Gale, a steel worker, recently made redundant. He has a ten year old son, is separated from his wife Pam, and behind with his maintenance payments. When he sees the queues of women waiting to get into the Chippendales show, he hits on the idea of putting on a similar show, eventually persuading some of his reluctant unemployed factory mates to join him. However to attract an audience, they have to offer, and give, their audience something the Chippendales don't – The Full Monty! An excellent cast of 22 strong singers, actors and dancers, terrific songs, sensational dance routines, and an unforgettable climax, makes early booking advisable.
